

Please do all you can to keep the NJ law in tact. It is such an intrusion of my private time to receive calls for solicitation. Further, I have elderly parents who can be tricked into signing up for things unknowingly and if a phone is not nearby, I fear they will fall trying to get an incoming call thinking it is an important phone call.